Dear Miss Curry:

I would like to come to your Wisconsin meeting as outlined in your letter of June 6 - but there are two or three more or less minor considerations that need clearing up.

In the first place I'll be teaching this summer at the University of Virginia and will need the permission of the chairman of the history department to be away. But as this should entail only one day's absence from classes, I think this can be arranged easily. I'll write him today.

I am assuming that I could fly from Charlottesville to Madison after my Thursday classes. When I get to Virginia in about ten days I shall check on the air schedules.

The other consideration is that my expenses will probably be slightly more from Virginia than they would have been from Mississippi.

After June 18 you can reach me, c/o the History Department, Univ. of Virginia, Charlottesville, Va. I shall be staying at the Colonnade Club where I presume I could be reached by phone.

The above conditions appear to be minor, and therefore I shall assume that I'll be with you in August.

Sincerely,

James W. Silver
